

						8719
()	3	(3)				2
()	1600-1800(305),		0900-1000(305)
8
						80%	20%
	e-mail

1. (Course Overview)

		()	/				B
	70%	30%
가					1	2	3	4	5
	15%	35%	35%	15%
	E-government has emerged not merely as a specialization in public administration, but as a transformative force affecting all levels and functions of government.
	Nothing speciall.
	This course introduces the technology of e-government with an in-depth examination of current government development and management challenges in the delivery of services and information, electronically, to their constituents '24 hours a day seven days a week. Several topics are examined: (1) current E-government challenges and trends (2) Web presence development (3) statutes affecting development and management (4) constituent needs assessment (5) service delivery application and transaction package (6) how to develop effective E-government administrators.
	1. Pavlichev, A & Garson, D.. (2014). Digital Government:Principles and Best Practices. IdeaGroup Publishing.

2. (Course Schedule)

1	03/02~03/08		introduction
			e - government as reengineering the federal government o e - government as reengineering the federal government o The e - government business model
			discussion
2	03/09~03/15		The Emergence of digital government: international perspective Generating a return on Investment in E - government o Generating a return on Investment in E - government o The five stages of e - government
			discussion
3	03/16~03/22		Portals and policy
			Federal Government Information and Services o Implications of Electronic Access to U.S. Federal Government Information and Services
			discussion
4	03/23~03/29		Government web portals
			Management Issues and the Approaches of Five States Management Issues and the Approaches of Five States
			discussion
5	03/30~04/05		The Organizational culture of digital government
			Technology, Accountability and Shared Governance Technology, Accountability and Shared Governance
			discussion
6	04/06~04/12		Political Implications of Digital Government e - democracy in the U.S. States o social considerations: the digital divide o e - democracy in the U.S. States
			discussion

7	04/13~04/19		Consequences of the Cyberstate
			The political Implications of Digital Government in international context o The political Implications of Digital Government in international context
			discussion
8	04/20~04/26		Midterm examination
9	04/27~05/03		Digital Government and Individual Privacy
			Ensuring confidentiality
			o Ensuring confidentiality o implementing Appropriate security controls
			discussion
10	05/04~05/10		E -procurement
			State Government Learns from the Private Sector o State Government Learns from the Private Sector
			discussion
11	05/11~05/17		Issues in E-Commerce and E-Government Service Delivery
			Web usability
			o Web usability o Security Issues
			discussion
12	05/18~05/24		Digital Government Balancing Risk and Reward through public/private partnerships o Balancing Risk and Reward through public/private partnerships
			discussion

13	05/25~05/31		Ethics and digital Government Ethics and the cost of digital government o Ethics and the cost of digital government
			discussion
14	06/01~06/07		The E- government challenges for public administration
			E- government and public affairs programs o E- government and public affairs programs
			discussion
15	06/08~06/14		Digital government and citizen participation in International Context
			Regimes and spheres of authority o Regimes and spheres of authority
			discussion
16	06/15~06/21		Final examination

		Notice later!

		lecture and discussion .

